Dear JITP Editorial Team:

We greatly appreciate the opportunity to revise and resubmit our manuscript entitled, “Government Websites As Data: A methodological pipeline with application to the websites of municipalities in the United States,” for publication at The Journal of Information Technology & Politics. Revising in response to the reviewer comments has sharpened the communication of our contributions, and improved the paper overall. We are excited to continue developing our manuscript with the guidance of the JITP editorial team and reviewers.

Sincerely,
